

DUY NGUYEN

Duy Nguyen's career spanned from non-profit management, sales executive, to building strategic relationships for major Fortune 500 companies. He is currently the CEO & Executive Director of the Asian Chamber of Commerce (ACC) and the Asian Chamber of Commerce Foundation in Nevada. He was appointed to this inaugural post in October of 2009 after serving on the chamber's board of directors for 4 years. Under his leadership, many of the local fund-raising and membership programs took new form, increased attendance, and became "must-see" events. The ACC Foundation gave over a quarter of a million dollars in scholarships for the past 12 years and is one of the most respected and prestigious scholarship foundations in the Southern Nevada area. He is a member of the Clark County Business Development Advisory Council, UNLV Diversity Commission, Colleges of Southern Nevada Business Advisory Council, NSHE Chancellor Advisory Board for Inclusive Excellence, Executive Committee Member of the Water Conservation Coalition, and National Urban Fellows America's Leaders of Change. Duy is also currently serving as National Vice President for Economic Development for OCA, a national civil rights and education organization for Asian Pacific Americans with 82 chapters and affiliates across the United States. Duy is a graduate of the University of Phoenix with a Bachelor of Science in Business Management, and a Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.)
